

Knowing You, Lord

I choose this day, along my way, to know you, Lord.
I walk and talk, sing and cry, rejoicing in knowing and worshipping you, Lord.

I've often lost sight of you, Lord and fallen with pain to my knees. Then you gently take my hands and lift me up to a place where I can see.

You are my friend, You love me, Your SPIRIT fills my life. Your gentle touch soothes my hurts, your presence brings relief not strife.

I personally look forward to our time each day, to get to know you, Lord, is my burning desire. You give me hope because a New Day Is Dawning and you fill me with your SPIRIT, Lord, so that others may catch your fire.
